

Have You Heard?

“The state’s microbusinesses are playing a crucial role in West Virginia’s drive towards the New Economy. The Money in the Mountains Conference is a unique opportunity for entrepreneurs to explore resources that will help their businesses prosper.”
-Jay Rockefeller, U.S. Senate

- Want to know how your forest and farm-based businesses can find new markets and make more money?
- Want to be part of the largest International conference on microbusiness in West Virginia history?
- Want to find people to do business with from around the world?

There is still time to register for the Center for Economic Option’s Money in the Mountains International Conference.

November 2-4, Jackson’s Mill, West Virginia.

What are you waiting for?

Please call Kasey Russell at 304.345.7578 or email kaseyrussell@citynet.net for information on how to register.